3 Polish Your Apple

Brydge's keyboards, crafted from premium aluminum, are designed to boost the functionality of iPads, complementing Apple's devices so well that they won a Consumer Electronics Show 2016 Innovation Award and prompted a Wired reviewer to say they "look and feel like they are designed in Cupertino." The BrydgePro makes an iPad look like a MacBook; the BrydgeMini is designed for the iPad mini 1, 2, 3, and 4; and the BrydgeAir (shown) fits the iPad Air and Air 2. The keyboards feature Bluetooth, backlit keys, a patented hinge for 180-degree viewing, and three months of rechargeable battery life.
